

The JPL Honor Code

- I WILL CONDUCT ALL BUSINESS DEALINGS WITH FAIRNESS, HONESTY, AND INTEGRITY.
- I WILL PROTECT ALL INFORMATION AND RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO ME FROM LOSS, THEFT, AND MISUSE.
- I WILL AVOID EVEN THE APPEARANCE OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST OR ANY OTHER IMPROPRIETY.
- I WILL TREAT MY FELLOW EMPLOYEES FAIRLY AND WITH DIGNITY AND RESPECT.
- I WILL HELP CREATE AND SUSTAIN AN ATMOSPHERE CONDUCIVE TO THE SPIRIT OF THIS CODE.

Caltech is committed to ensuring that Jet Propulsion Laboratory business is conducted in a manner that fully satisfies both Caltech's legal obligations as a manager of a federally funded research and development center and its own high standards of integrity and excellence. The integrity of JPL is based to a large degree on the collective integrity of its individual employees. The JPL Honor Code establishes the standards of ethical conduct that apply to all Laboratory employees.

If you have questions regarding ethics practices, you may:

- Call the confidential Ethics line at (818) 354-9999 (24-hour answering machine)
- Contact one of the Ethics Advisors:

Lani M. DeBenedictis (818) 354-6338

Douglas L. Sanders (818) 354-8363

ETHICS
OFFICE